NORTH YORKSHIRE COUNTY COUNCIL

County Councillor Swiers reported on the following issues:

- Acknowledged the concerns regarding speeding through the village and on making enquiries the recommendation was for residents to carry out the community speed watch.
- Pleased to hear that the MUGA has been taken back in house as locality money has been awarded towards the repair works earlier in the year.
- The Parish Portal has been improved over the past couple of weeks.

Questions were asked regarding the blocked drains along Hunmanby Road/Bridlington Road causing flooding at the railway crossing, also the concerns to the flooding on Sheep Dyke Lane with surface water is running from the farm. On Castle Hill you can not see the lines on the highway. Cllr Swiers agreed to take these issues forward.

RESOLVED: That the above report be noted.
